

Noventra Systems Employee Policies

Human Resources Policy

Noventra Systems is committed to creating a respectful, inclusive, and growth-oriented workplace.

Employees are expected to:

- Treat colleagues respectfully.
- Follow organizational policies.
- Protect confidential information.
- Complete mandatory compliance training.
- Follow security best practices.
- Maintain professional communication.

Managers are responsible for:

- Performance reviews
 - Career development
 - Team wellbeing
 - Fair workload distribution
 - Goal setting
-

Working Hours

Standard working hours are:

Monday–Friday

9:00 AM to 6:00 PM

Employees may utilize approved flexible working arrangements subject to manager approval.

Attendance

Employees should:

- Mark attendance daily.
- Inform managers of planned absences.
- Notify the reporting manager promptly in case of emergencies.

Repeated unexplained absence may result in disciplinary review.

Leave Policy

The company provides several categories of leave.

Annual Leave

20 working days per calendar year.

Unused leave may be carried forward according to company guidelines.

Sick Leave

12 working days annually.

Medical documentation may be requested for extended leave.

Casual Leave

8 working days annually.

Approval is subject to business requirements.

Parental Leave

Eligible employees may apply according to regional employment regulations and company guidelines.

Bereavement Leave

Available for immediate family emergencies.

Public Holidays

Employees receive holidays based on their office location.

Remote Work Policy

Eligible employees may work remotely based on team requirements and manager approval.

Employees must:

- Maintain secure internet access.
- Use company-issued devices when required.

- Follow cybersecurity guidelines.
 - Attend scheduled meetings.
-

Information Security Policy

Employees shall:

- Never share passwords.
 - Enable multi-factor authentication.
 - Report suspicious emails immediately.
 - Lock devices when unattended.
 - Store company information only in approved systems.
-

Workplace Conduct

Employees are expected to:

- Communicate professionally.
- Respect diversity and inclusion.
- Avoid harassment and discrimination.
- Maintain confidentiality.
- Avoid conflicts of interest.
- Protect company assets.
- Follow workplace safety procedures.

Bullying, intimidation, or abusive behavior is prohibited.

Performance Management

Performance reviews are conducted twice each year.

Employees are evaluated based on:

- Quality of work
- Collaboration
- Innovation
- Accountability
- Customer impact

- Goal achievement
-

Training and Learning

Employees are encouraged to complete:

- Technical certifications
 - Leadership programs
 - Security awareness training
 - Compliance courses
 - Product knowledge sessions
-

Disciplinary Actions

Policy violations are addressed progressively depending on severity.

Possible actions include:

1. Verbal counseling
2. Written warning
3. Performance improvement plan
4. Final written warning
5. Suspension where applicable
6. Employment termination in severe cases

Serious misconduct may result in immediate investigation and appropriate disciplinary action.

Acceptable Use of Company Resources

Employees should use company systems primarily for business purposes.

Unauthorized software installation, misuse of company data, or sharing confidential information is prohibited.

Policy Updates

Noventra Systems may revise company policies periodically.

Employees are expected to review updated policies published on the employee portal.